Dear Pastors & Church Administrators:

Here's the basic information we hope you will pass along to your congregation on the second NCNC Forum for the Future:

NCNC UCC Forums for the Future

Transformational Youth & Young Adult Ministry with Ken Brown Associate for Youth and Young Adult Empowerment Office of Justice and Witness Ministries of the UCC and Rev. Da Vita D. McCallister Minister for Youth, Young Adults, and Outdoors Office of Local Church Ministries of the UCC

September 16, 2006, 10am to 4pm, hosted by Congregational Church of San Mateo UCC and Kalavaria CCCSA UCC

This inspiring and informational day of worship and conversation will help us connect with others in youth ministry, identify exciting resources that can help your church, and discern God's call to our conference for youth ministry. Lunch will be provided.

Come if your church.

- o wonders how to start a youth ministry
- o wants to see its small youth program grow and thrive
- o is ready for its long standing tradition of youth ministry to be transformed

Please RSVP to Joy Davis by calling the NCNC UCC Conference Office at 510-247-8995 or emailing her at joy@ncnccucc.org.

Childcare and overnight hospitality available upon request. The forum is free of charge. A free-will offering will be available to help offset costs.

Congregational Church of San Mateo is located in the heart of San Mateo which is halfway between San Francisco and San Jose. The church's address is 225 Tilton Avenue, San Mateo, California 94401. Call for directions 650/343-3694 or go to <http://www.ccsm-ucc.org/ccsm/directions.htm>
